(b) In conducting its proceedings concerning H.R. 6012 in accordance with section 2509 of title 28, United States Code, the United States Claims Court may recommend the payment of money under the bill, notwithstanding provisions in an agreement dated June 5, 1986, between the United States and the contractor, J. Lawson Jones Construction Co., Inc., on behalf of its subcontractor, Lincoln Construction Company, Inc., that the contractor agreed to release the Government from all claims arising out of the contract dispute and that the agreement constituted a full accord and satisfaction of all the contractors' claims against the United States. In determining whether such provisions in the agreement should bar the award of any additional money, the Claims Court shall determine whether the United States acted in bad faith in settling the claim, knowing that at the time of the settlement negotiations Lincoln Construction Company, Inc., because of its obligations to pay debts pursuant to a bankruptcy proceeding, was constrained to accept even an unreasonable settlement offer.
